COMMISSIONERS ELECT 2012 BOARD PRESIDENT

This morning, the Franklin County Board of Commissioners elected Paula Brooks to serve as the 2012 Board President.

Commissioner Brooks' efforts, along with those of her colleagues, Commissioners Marilyn Brown and John O'Grady, have served Central Ohio residents well. They will continue to focus on overseeing a balanced and fiscally responsible budget which carefully supports the County's top priorities of spurring job and economic growth, protecting community safety and security, and maintaining core human services.

"I thank my fellow Commissioners for their support and hard work on behalf of all of Franklin County," said Commissioner Paula Brooks.
