

ALERT Franklin
County
Emergency Notification System

Franklin County's Mass Notification & Warning System

ALERT Franklin County is a county-wide mass notification and warning system designed to alert residents about emergencies and other important community news in jurisdictions within Franklin County.

ALERT Franklin County provides important information directly to you via text message, email, cell phone, home phone, or work phone. Text message is the fastest way to receive notifications.

ALERT Franklin County is customizable and allows you to choose what kind of community notifications you want to receive, how you would like to receive them and the location you want to receive them for.

You can elect to receive emergency notifications about severe weather and disasters as well as location specific information regarding crime alerts, road closures, transportation incidents, utility outages, government closings and other important community news.

You can register for notifications, update your current information and get more information about ALERT Franklin County online at
